

WAYNE QUILLIAM

Photography

Wayne Quilliam is considered one of the country's most respected Aboriginal photographers and artists. With more than 130 exhibitions in Australia, Europe, Asia, and the USA, and the teaching of Indigenous people in Vietnam, Mexico, and Bolivia, Wayne's achievements are truly significant. In recognition of his work he has been awarded the 2009 National NAIDOC Artist of the Year, the 2008 Human Rights Award, and winner of a Walkley Award. Exhibitions include the National Museum in Canberra, Vienna, Berlin, Mexico, Tokyo, Bolivia, Melbourne, and headlining the International Photo Biennale. His 'Sorry: more than a word' exhibition opened at Parliament House in Canberra and tours the country. 'Towindri' exhibition recently opened in Egypt and his 'Lowanna' exhibition in Sardinia.
